Behaviour Level Descriptors (BLD) for Primary schools

A bespoke INSET course offered to schools to help the progress of student's behaviour

Ian Enwright is now responsible for three Primary Pupil Referral Units (PRU) settings across Surrey. Prior to this role, he was Head of RVC Primary in 2014 and 2017 when RVC achieved "Outstanding" in all areas. He has since set up a further Primary PRU from the ground up and acted as Consultant for Fordway supporting its "Outstanding" judgement in all areas achieved in 2016.

Ian supports local mainstream schools and SENCOs in SEND Processes and arrangements alongside his present role. He frequently presents at School INSETS, Conferences and SESTA Events in reference to Behaviour Management and Behaviour Monitoring and has developed a monitoring tool that is increasingly being used across both Primary and Secondary Surrey schools. His nurture based approach and experience remains a driving force in meeting the needs of the individual vulnerable children across Surrey and his knowledge of ASD, ADHD and PDA has seen him support other local provisions across the county.

A bespoke INSET course offered to schools to help the progress of student's behaviour

Ian Enwright (Head of all Surrey Primary PRUs) has worked alongside a trained lead Ofsted inspector to develop a tracking and monitoring system using levels of age appropriate expected behaviours.

Staff can use targets to help student gain the next level of behaviour and Senior Leaders can easily track progress of student behaviours.

Feedback from schools who have adopted this system have been extremely positive and students like that they can assess their own behaviours and see how to improve.
This is a 90-minute INSET session delivered at your school where Ian will present the theory and all the documentation and then leave all the resources at the school for you to implement. When booking this session, you are agreeing to a follow up session around 6 months later to support implementation and check for any updates.
